BRIONI

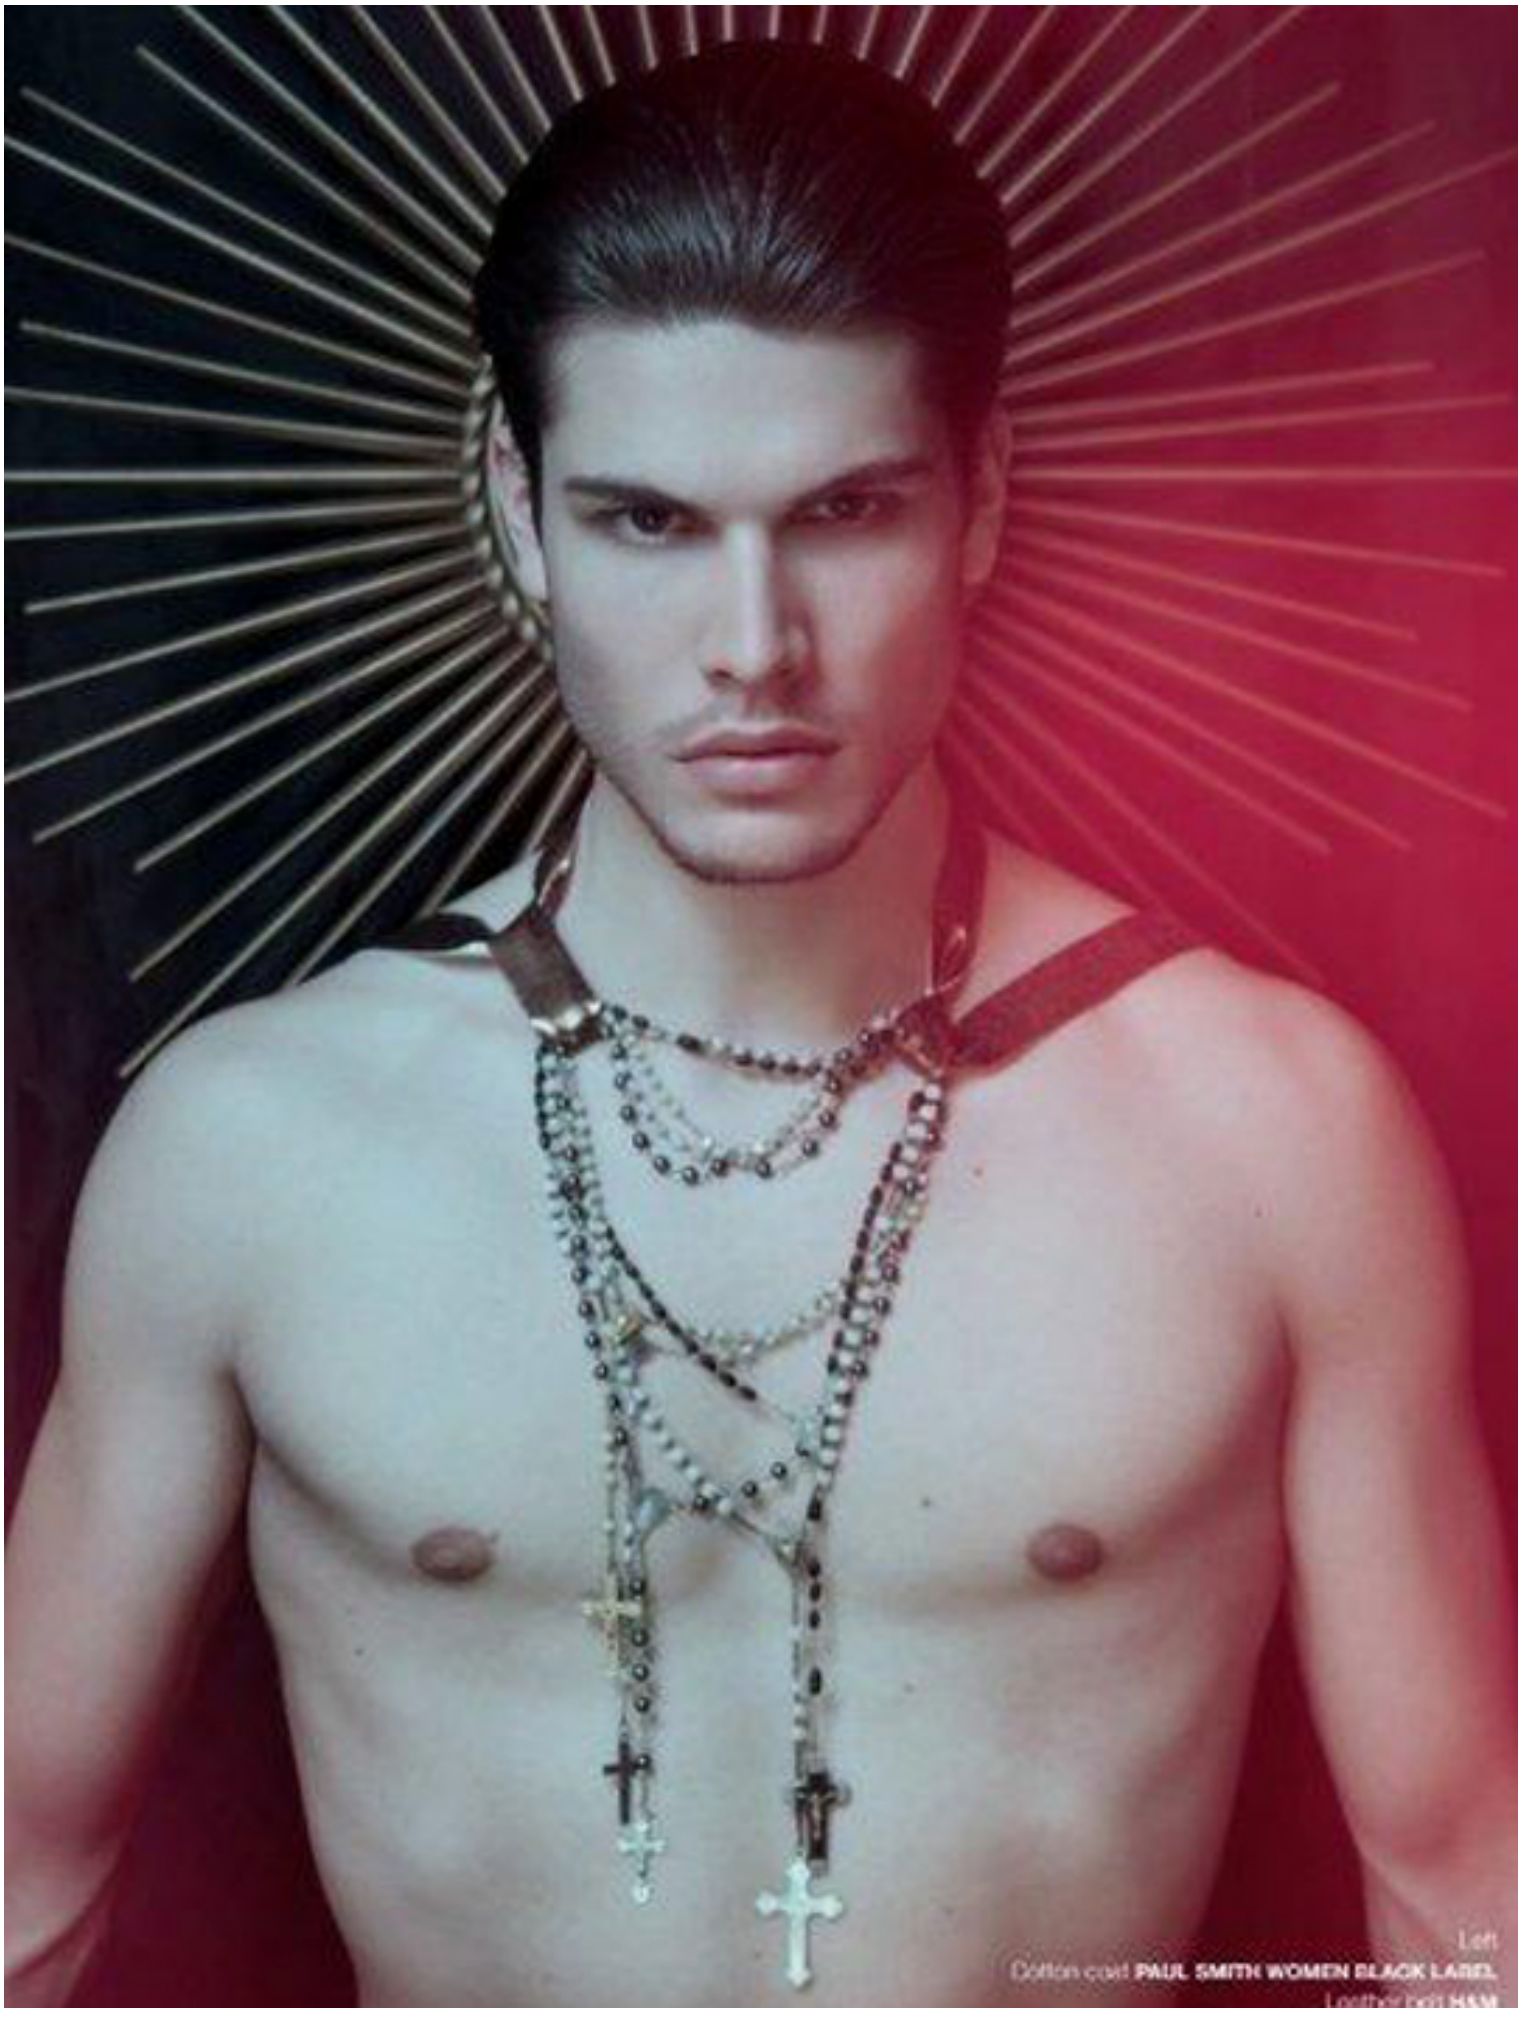

This Italian fashion house takes its name from the Istrian islands frequented by European jetsetters in the first decades of the 20th century. Drawing upon the best craftsmanship, Brioni emerged as an epitome of style for the glamorous continental look, leading fashion trends in both the entertainment and business world in Italy and abroad since its onset in 1945. Today, Brioni keeps its edge in the fashion world by maintaining its dedication to passion, commitment and is adorned by international celebrities worldwide, representing the cutting edge of the sartorial expertise and tradition of Italian design.
